Pada rapat dewan gubernur yang dilaksanakan pada 12 September 2019, Bank Sentral Eropa (ECB) memutuskan untuk menurunkan suku bunga deposito sebanyak 10bps menjadi -0,50% dari sebelumnya -0,40%, mempertahankan suku bunga acuan dan suku bunga pinjaman marginal masing-masing di level 0,0% dan 0,25% serta meluncurkan program pembelian aset senilai 20 miliar euro ($21,9 miliar). Program pembelian aset ini akan mulai berlaku sejak 1 November 2019 dan akan berjalan selama masih diperlukan. Penghentian program ini baru akan dilaksanakan ketika ECB melihat ada ruang untuk menaikkan suku bunga acuan utama. Kebijakan moneter longgar tersebut diambil sebagai langkah bank sentral untuk mendorong pertumbuhan ekonomi di kawasan tersebut, sebagaimana diketahui sejak awal tahun lalu ekonomi eropa terus mengalami tekanan dan pada Q2-19 hanya tumbuh 1,2% yoy. Sejalan dengan pertumbuhan ekonominya, angka inflasi juga cukup rendah yaitu di level 1% (Agustus). Perlambatan ekonomi di kawasan ini tidak terlepas dari dampak perang dagang yang sampai saat ini belum menemui titik terang.

Keputusan untuk melonggarkan kebijakan moneternya sejauh ini tidak hanya di lakukan oleh Bank Sentral Eropa tapi juga di lakukan oleh bank sentral lainnya di dunia dengan tujuan yang sama yaitu mendorong pertumbuhan ekonomi.

Global Market Wrap

Pada pekan kedua bulan September pergerakan pasar masih dominan dipengaruhi oleh sentimen eksternal terutama terkait perkembangan isu perang dagang antara Amerika dan China. Menguatnya harga komoditas miyak sawit dan tambang mineral yaitu nikel sebagai dampak pelarangan eksport bijih nikel dari Indonesia lebih awal dari jadwal semula juga turut memberikan sentimen positif di pasar. Sementara itu keputusan ECB untuk menurunkan suku bunga deposito dan meluncurkan QE dalam rangka mendorong pertumbuhan ekonomi di Kawasan tersebut tidak terlalu berpengaruh ke pergerakan indeks karena kebijakan tersebut sudah sesuai dengan ekspektasi pasar.

Selama sepekan perkembangan perundingan dagang antara Amerika dan China berjalan cukup positif meskipun belum sampai pada kesepakatan akhir. Beberapa hal yang sudah dicapai oleh kedua belah pihak antara lain :

- Kedua belah pihak sepakat untuk kembali melakukan pertemuan untuk melanjutkan perundingan di awal Oktober.
- China membebaskan tarif impor untuk 16 barang yang dibeli dari Amerika. Kebijakan ini sendiri akan mulai efektif pada tanggal 17 September dan berakhir pada tanggal 20 September 2020.
- Tercapainya kesepakatan konseptual antara kedua negara mengenai mekanisme penegakan hukum atas pencurian hak kekayaan intelektual.
- Presiden Donald Trump menyetujui penundaan pengenaan kenaikan tarif atas barang impor asal China senilai $250 miliar dari 25% menjadi 30%. Pengenaan kenaikan tersebut baru akan diberlakukan pada tanggal 15 Oktober dari rencana semula awal Oktober.
- Pada akhir pekan China mengumumkan akan mengeluarkan komoditas kedelai dan babi dari pengenaan kenaikan tarif serta mendorong perusahaan asal negeri itu untuk mengimpor kedua komoditas tersebut dari Amerika.

Sentimen Sepekan Kedepan

Untuk pekan ini investor akan mencermati beberapa kejadian penting terutama terkait penetapan suku bunga acuan oleh Bank of England, The Fed dan Bank Indonesia. Selain itu investor juga akan mencermati rilis data neraca perdagangan di bulan Agustus. Berdasarkan konsensus pasar The Fed diperkirakan akan memangkas suku bunga acuannya sebesar 25bps menjadi 1,75-2,00%. Sedangkan Bank Indonesia menurut konsensus pasar masih akan mempertahankan suku bunga acuannya di level 5,50%, meskipun BI sendiri masih membuka ruang untuk pemangkas suku bunga lebih lanjut. Neraca perdagangan Indonesia pada bulan lalu di prediksi akan mengalami surplus $0,19 miliar setelah sebelumnya secara mengejutkan hanya mengalami deficit $0,06 miliar.
